General Description of the Purkeville Hydropathic Institute. The main building is three stories high, standing back from the street about one hundred feet, with a semicircular grass plot in front, and contains thirty to forty rooms. The grounds around the house are tastefully list out with walks and planted with trees, shrube, &c. On the left of the entrance to these grounds is a cottage containing four rooms, used by male patients as a bathing house, with every convenience for "packing," bathing, &c.; on the right of the entrance, about two hundred fest distant, stands a similar cottage, used by the ladies for similar purposes.

In the rear of the Institute, at the distance of one hun and the cear of the institute, at the absance of one hun-dred feet, are three other cottages, some eighty feet apart. One of these is the laundry, with a hydrant at the door; the other two are occupied by the servants. The hydrant water is introduced into these cottages as well as into the main building, and all the waste water carried off by drains under ground.

carried oif by drains under ground.

THE WATER WORKS

Consist of a circular stone building, standing on the brow of a hill, surmounted by a large colar reservoir containing five hundred barrols, brought from a never-failing spring of pure cold water in the side of the hill, by "an hydraulic ram," a self-acting machine of cast iron, that is kept constantly going, night and day, by the descent of the water from the spring. The surplus water is carried from the reservoir to a fountain in the water-works yard, aprounded by weeping willows. In the first story of the waterworks is a circular room, containing the douche bath, which is a stream failing from a height of about thirty feet, and can be varied in size from half an inch to an inch and a half in diameter. Adjoining the douche room is a dressing room, with marble tables, &c.; the rising douche (for the cure of piles, &c.) is one of the most complete contrivances of the kind, being entirely under the control of the patient using the same. control of the patient using the same.

works, (retail price, $2.50 per vol.) A new and complete PICTORIAL HISTORY OF CHIMA AND INDIA;
with a descriptive account of them countries and their PICTORIAL HISTORY OF CHINA AND INDIA; with a descriptive account of those countries and their inhabitants, from the earliest period of authentic history to the present time. In which the editor has treated not only of the historical events, but also of the manners, enstoms, religion, literature, and domestic habits of the people of those immense empires.

The embellishments are about two hundred, and of the mist order, illustrating whatever is peculiar to the inhabitants, regarding their dress, domestic occupations, their mode of agriculture, commercial pursuits, arts, ic. They are accurate, and each one has been made expressly for the work.

The volume forms a large octave, containing between five and air hundred pages, printed in the best style, and on good substantial white pager. It is furnished to agents, mandsomely bound in muslin, gilt, or leather, as the purchaser may prefer, at a very liberal discount, when quantities of not less than twenty copies are ordered at one time.

THRILLING INCIDENTS OF THE WARS OF THE UNITED STATES;
comprising the most striking and remarkable events of the Revolution, the French war, the Tripolitan war, the Indian war, the second war with Great Britain, and the Mexican war; with three hundred engravings! Retail price, $2 50 per volume. Orders respectfully solicited.

SEARS PICTORIAL FAMILY PUBLICATIONS are decidedly the best books that agents can possibly employ their time in supplying to the people of the United States. They are valuable for reference, and should be possessed by every family in this great republic. There is not a city or town in these United States, not even those of small importance, but contains many citizens to whom these works are indispensable. They are adapted to the literary wants of the Christian, the patriot, the statesman, and the domestic circle, got up in a superior style of art and workmanship; and are not only such books as will sell, but are such as an agent of good principle will feel free to recommend, and willing to see the purchaser again after they have been bought.

Our Plas.—The plan the publisher has so successfully carried out for several years, is the obtaining responsible cen as agents, who are well known in their own counties, owns, and villages, and have time and disposition to circulate good and instructive books among their neighbors and friends.—Any person wishing to embark in the enterprise will risk little in sending $25 or $50, for which he will receive an assortment as he may direct, at the whole sale cash prices.

Enterprising and active men of respectability and good address, would do well to engage in the sale of the above volumes; and all postmasters, elergymen, book pediars, and newspaper agents, are respectfully requested to act as our agents. A handsome remuneration allowed to all who engage in their sale. For particular address, post paid, Robert SeARS, 128 Nassau street, N.Y

IRISH EMIGRANT SOCIETY. Office, No. 1 Reade Street, New York.

Office, No. 1 Reade Street, New York.

In consequence of the great number of complaints which have for a long time been made by Enisgrants, of frauds committed upon them in the sending of money to their friends in Ireland, and to said and protect the Emigrant their Irish Emigrant Society established a fund, deposited in the Benk of Ireland; upon which they draw drafts, payable at sight, at any of the branches of the Bank.

Persons residing out of the city, by enclosing in a letter, the sum they wish forwarded, with the plainly written direction to whom and where it is to be paid, will have the same remitted.

There is a great advantage in purchasing the Society's drafts—that the Bank has a branch in each of the principal towns in Ireland, and thus the losses by discount, and otherwise, are avoided.

The Society keeps an office at No. 22 Spruce street, to which Emigrants can apply to obtain situations for which they are fitted.

Orders from employers in the country, stating the services required, the wages, and the cheapest modes of conveyance, and giving a respectable reference, will meet with prompt attention.

The Society will be thankful for all circumstantial and vices required, and every respectable reference, with mice versions, and giving a respectable reference, with mice prompt attention.

The Society will be thankful for all circumstantial and early information of any fraud, imposition, or outrage committed on Emigrants, and will endeavor specifly to apply a remedy.
